Introduction to Banking, Insurance & Capital Market
(TAM-303)

Course Outcomes:

1. Comprehensive Understanding: Students will develop a comprehensive understanding of the roles, functions, and operations of banking, insurance, and capital markets within the broader financial system.
2. Critical Analysis: Students will be able to critically analyze the regulatory environment governing financial services, assess ethical dilemmas, and evaluate risk management practices in the financial industry.

Unit	Topic
I	Introduction to Financial Systems and Institutions: Overview of Financial Systems, Functions of Financial Institutions, Types of Financial Institutions, Regulatory Framework
II	Banking Operations and Services: Evolution of Banking, Types of Banks, Banking Products and Services, Bank Management and Operations
III	Insurance Principles and Practices: Introduction to Insurance, Types of Insurance, Insurance Operations and Underwriting, Risk Management and Insurance
IV	Capital Markets and Investment Instruments: Overview of Capital Markets, Types of Securities, Primary and Secondary Markets, Investment Analysis and Portfolio Management
V	Regulation and Compliance in Financial Services: Regulatory Framework in Financial Services, Compliance and Governance, Ethical Issues in Banking and Finance, Risk Management and Internal Controls

Text Book(s):

1. Financial Markets and Institutions" by Mishkin and Eakins